LIQUOR THE ROOT OF MARITAL WOE

Three Bibulous Husbands Lose Their Wives By Divorce Decrees.

JACOBSEN'S HABITS REGULAR

Spouse Says He Was Drunk Twice Each Week-Also Used His Fists on Her.

Judge Armstrong granted three divorces at yesterday afternoon's matinee, and in all three the use of liquor was the moving cause, . The husband in each instance was charged with drinking, and in one of being an habitual drunkard.

Ellen Nora Jacobsen was the first applicant for severance of the matrimontal bonds. She said she had married Charles L. Jacobsen Aug. 26, 1903. and said that he had been in the habit of coming home drunk twice a week for a long time. She further alleged that in April, 1906, he ceased supporting her, and she has been-compelled to work as a clerk in a store to maintain herself. Mrs. Jacobsen testified that her hus-band had struck her at different times. and this was enough for the judge, and band had struck her at different times, and this was enough for the judge, and the divorce was granted.

Louise E, White testified that her husband, William L, White, had been a habitual drunkard for six years past, and had been a drunkard for 15 years. The oldest boy in a family of six took the stand and bore out the story told by his mother. The young man, who is 20 years old, said on the witness stand that as long as he could remember his father had been coming home drunk.

The husband is a cattle man and earns, according to the statement of Mrs. White, in the neighborhood of $200 per month. The plaintiff was given a divorce, the custody of the children and $75 per month alimony.

Mary E, Bartlett asked for a divorce from her husband, Edward E, Bartlett, whom she married at Carthage, Mo., Aug. 19, 1896, on the ground that he had failed to support her. She said her

Aug. 19, 1839, on the ground that he had falled to support her. She said her husband spent what money he got in gambling and drink. She asserted that he earns $200 per month as an engineer on the Rio Grande rallroad. Judge Morse awarded her a decree carrying $25 per month allmony and $75 attorneys' fees

HEIRS PAY BIG TAX.

The inheritance tax in the estate of O. J. Salisbury was paid in to the office of the country clerk yestetrday, amounting to $2,736.53. Tre estate is valued at $414.125, which, after deductions of $139,396.33 for debts, etc. the net valuation is $474.738.89, on which the tax according to the inheritance statute amounts to the figure given.

LARSEN FOUND GUILTY.

Vedo Larsen, charged with resisting an officer and disorderly conduct at Saltair on July 4, had a hearing before Justice Anton Lundberg yesterday afternoon. The testimony went to show that Larsen was under the influence of lieuor and swore on the dancing floor and struck at the officer who put him down stairs. Larsen was found guilty and fined $25.

Motley Assembly of Offenders Lined Up in Police Court.

Negroes, Mexicans, white men and half white, drunkards, petty thleves, vagrants and fighters were lined up on the mourners' bench before Judge C. B. Diehl of the criminal division of the city court this morning. There were old men, young men, mere boys and one colored woman to answer to various charges. Pantaleon Martenze, a Mexican, declared he was not guilty of stealing a hat, a pair of shoes and a couple of shirts from J. M. Chicoon. He declared that another Mexican took the property from the rightful owner and gave the things to him, but as his story did not sound reasonable, and as Asst. City Atty. Rogers introduced evidence showing that Martinze stole the articles, the latter will make little rocks out of big ones on the chain gang for the next 50 days, unless he pays a dollar per day. clared he was not guilty of stealing

PAYS BIG JUDGMENT.

The Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company yesterday paid the judgment recently awarded to Katherine Porter in a personal injury suit, amounting to $13,336.85. The judgment was origin-ally $12,000, but accrued interest and costs brought the total up to the larger sum. Miss Porter was in an accident on defendant's road at Durango, Colo-on Dec. 26, 1996, and lost an arm through having that member crushes under the car, and afterwards ampu-tated. She sued the company for $125,-900, and the case was tried in Judge Lewis' division of the Third district court. After a trial lasting two weeks, the jury brought in a verdict in favor of Miss Porter for $12,000.

KULACHIS IN COURT.

Gus Kulachis, a saloon keeper, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Dan T. Smith yesterday afternoon on the charge of threatening to murder John Anargyros. He pleaded not guilty and in default of $250 bail he was committed, to the county jail. The man was arrested by Sheriff Emery.

Affairs of Late Chin Wee.

In the probate session of Judge Armstrong's court this morning, considerable "chinning" was in evidence. The matter of appointing an administrator in the estate of Crin Wee was on the docket, and the petition of Chin You asking to be named as such was before his honor. Chin Wille acted as interpreter and Chin You was named as administrator, and his bond fixed at $4,000. The estate of the deceased Chinaman consists of $1,000 cash and $1,000 interest in a Chinese mercantile house. His wife, Wo Song, lives in China, and she will receive the bulk of the estate.

Another probate matter of interest was the matter of the appointment of an administrator in the estate of Gust Demetrakopoulos, who died recently, leaving an estate consisting of $500 in cash. George Hasomerous, otherwise known as George Demetrakopoulos, was named as administrator, his bond being fixed at $1,000. George Georgias acted as interpreter in this case.

rankfort, on the Main, July 11.—Four hundred German-American symnasts accompanied by a large number of relatives and friends, arrived here today to take part in the international gymnastic tournament and festivities that open here today and last until July 22.

No less than 40,000 gymnasts are to take part in these contests, for which a large number of prizes have been offered. The preliminary festivities and the gala banquet are to be held today. Tomorrow there will be a procession through the city. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week there will be a series of gymnastic exhibitions, while the tournament proper will be held July 20, 21 and 22. At the conclusion of the tournament, there will be a number of celebrations and excursions to points of interest.

There was an accident to an electric car here today in which Rosa Weis of Chicago, one of the visitors in connection with the gymnastic tournament, sustained serious injuries on the head. Several other passengers, all local residents, were slightly hurt.

Fair at Calgary—Interseting Cana dian Colony News.

Cardston, Alberta, Canada, July 2.—
Yesterday was "Dominion Day'—today is "Cardston Day." Both have been fittingly observed; each, with the usual entertainment of early salutes, national colors raised, assembly where patriotic speeches, music and toasts and sentiments are indulged, continuing through the afternoon with baseball, foot races, jumping and tug-of-war, also horse racing. Not an accident marred the two days, and to add to the pleasures, ideal weather prevailed.
